

Course Name: Acting for Adults (Group 1) Instructor: Charles Penick

Ages: 17-Adult Cost: $96 Length: 8 weeks (2 hour class)

Day/Time: Saturday 2:00pm-4:00pm

Dates: April 16, 23, 30, May 7, 14, 21, 28, June 4

Location : The Seton Center

Course Description: This class will explore practical stage acting for adults, focusing on fundamental acting techniques such as characterization, emotional recall and script interpretation. This will enable the actors to gain confidence and composure, as well as a practical approach to analyzing and developing their characters in future stage work.

Course Name: Acting for Adults (Group 2) Instructor: Charles Penick

Ages: 17-Adult Cost: $96 Length: 8 weeks (2 hour class)

Day/Time: Saturday 4:00pm-6:00pm

Dates: April 16, 23, 30, May 7, 14, 21, 28, June 4

Location: The Seton Center

Course Description: This class is for students that have previously completed the Acting for Adults (Group 1) class.

---

Student sign-up deadline for the Fall 2015 semester is 4/4/16.

Registration can be cancelled up to the start of the 2nd class date.

The Heritage Players

Community Theatre

Theatre

Classes

Spring 2016

The Heritage Players are a non-profit community theater dedicated to educating, fostering, and promoting the amateur stage in the local community. As part of this mission we offer theatre classes for children and adults.

Classes are held at

The Seton Center - 1900 Pioneer Ave. Pgh.
15226

or

The Schoolhouse Arts Center
2600 South Park Rd. Bethel Park 15102

Register online at www.bphp.org

Contact us: heritageplayers@yahoo.com

Theatre Classes

Course Name: Theater for Kids    Instructor: Jessica Savitz

Ages: 6-11    Cost: $57    Length: 8 weeks (1 hour class)

Day/Time: Monday 6:15pm-7:15pm

Dates: April 4, 11, 18, 25, May 9, 16, 23, June 6 (No class May 2)

Location: The Seton Center

Course Description: This class will use theater games and improvisation exercises to introduce children to acting. Students will learn basic acting techniques such as creating different characters, and developing expressive stage movement while at the same time having fun!

Course Name: Fundamentals of Acting    Instructor: Christine Rauch

Ages: 12-16    Cost: $64    Length: 8 weeks (1 hour class)

Day/Time: Wednesday 6:00pm-7:00pm

Dates: April 6, 13, 20, 27, May 4, 11, 18, 25

Location: The Schoolhouse Arts Center

Course Description: This class will explore the fundamentals of acting including characterization, understanding a script, improvisation, and the use of emotions.

Course Name: Audition Preparation    Instructor: Nicole Zalak

Ages: 13-Adult    Cost: $64    Length: 8 weeks (1 hour class)

Day/Time: Friday 6:00pm-7:00pm

Dates: April 8, 15, 22, 29, May 6,13,20,27

Location: The Schoolhouse Arts Center

Course Description: This course will cover everything you need to prepare for an audition, from formatting your resume to preparing sides. Throughout this course you will learn to select monologues based on your character type as well as selecting for specific prospective roles. We will workshop monologues, practice preparing sides, cold reads, and callbacks. By the end of the course you will be prepared with a properly formatted resume, slate, and two contrasting monologues.