Policy No. 919
Section COMMUNITY
Title TITLE I PARENT AND FAMILY ENGAGEMENT
Adopted DECEMBER 2, 2014
Last Revised DECEMBER 4, 2018
Reviewed JANUARY 19, 2021

POLICY NO. 919 TITLE I PARENT AND FAMILY ENGAGEMENT
Section 1	Purpose The Board recognizes that parent and family engagement contributes to the achievement of academic standards by students participating in Title I programs. The Board views the education of students as a cooperative effort among the school, parents and family members, and community.	20 U.S.C. Sec. 6318 Pol. 102
Section 2	Definition Parent and Family (Family Member) - these terms are used interchangeably and shall include caregivers, a legal guardian or other person standing in loco parentis such as a grandparent or stepparent with whom the child lives, a person who is legally responsible for the child's welfare, or a legally appointed Education Decision Maker of a child participating in a Title I program.
Section 3	Authority The Board directs the District and each of its schools with a Title I program to: 1. Conduct outreach to all parents and family members.	20 U.S.C. Sec. 6318

	POLICY NO. 919 TITLE I PARENT AND FAMILY ENGAGEMENT 2. Engage parents in the joint development of the District's overall Title I plan and the process of school review and improvement as necessary. 3. Engage parents and family members in the development of the Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy. Following adoption of the policy by the Board, the policy shall be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Incorporated into the district's Title I plan. b. Posted to the district's publicly accessible website and be available in writing upon request. c. Evaluated annually with parent and family engagement. 4. Provide opportunities and conduct meaningful collaborations with parents and family members in planning and implementation of Title I programs, activities, and procedures.
Section 4	Guidelines Each district school operating a Title I program shall hold an annual meeting of parents and family members at a convenient time to explain the goals and purposes of the Title I programs and to inform them of their right to be involved. Parents and family members shall be given the opportunity to participate in the design, development, operation and evaluation of the program. Parents and family members shall be encouraged to participate in planning activities, to offer suggestions, and to ask questions regarding policies and programs, through the Title I Parent Advisory Council, survey, and Parent-Faculty organization meetings. The schools with Title I programs shall offer a flexible number of meetings which shall be held at various times of the morning and evening. Title I funds may be used to enable parent and family member attendance at meetings through payment of transportation, child care costs or home visits.	20 U.S.C. Sec. 6312 SC 510.2 20 U.S.C. Sec. 6318 20 U.S.C. Sec. 6318

TITLE I PARENT AND FAMILY ENGAGEMENT

The schools shall involve parents and family members in an organized, ongoing and timely way, in the planning, review and improvement of Title I programs, the Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy and the joint development of the Title I Plan.

20 U.S.C. 6318,
6312

At these meetings, parents/guardians shall be provided:

20 U.S.C. 6318

1. Timely information about Title I programs and district and school level parent/guardian engagement activities.
2. Description and explanation of academic content standards, the curriculum in use, the forms of academic assessment used to measure student progress, and the achievement levels students are expected to meet.
3. Opportunities to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children.

To ensure the continuous engagement of parents and family members in the joint development of the Title I Plan and with the school support and improvement process, the district shall:

1. Establish meaningful, ongoing two-way communication between the district, staff and parents and family members.
2. Communicate with parents and family members about the plan and seek their input and participation through efficient means of communication such as, the use of newsletters, the district website, email, telephone, parent and teacher conferences, and home visits if needed.
3. Train personnel on how to collaborate effectively with parents and family members with diverse backgrounds that may impede their participation, such as limited literacy or language difficulty.
4. Analyze and share the results of the Title I Parent/Family Survey.

POLICY NO. 919
TITLE I PARENT AND FAMILY ENGAGEMENT

5. Post school performance data on the district's website.
6. Distribute and discuss the School-Parent and Family Compact.
7. Host various parent and family nights at each school building with a Title I program.
8. Establish and support active and engaged Title I parent and family advisory councils. The council will include a majority of parents and family members of students participating in Title I programs, as well as the building principal, teachers or other appropriate staff, students and community members. The purpose of the council shall be to focus on improved student achievement, effective classroom teaching, parent/family/community engagement in the educational process, and to facilitate communications and support.
9. Actively recruit parents and family members to participate in school review and improvement planning.
10. Assign district representatives to be available to work collaboratively with parents and family members, and to conduct school-level trainings to promote understanding of school data, comprehensive plans and the budgeting process.
11. Invite participation of parents and family members at the regular comprehensive planning committee meetings, Title I budget meetings and school improvement plan meetings to obtain input and propose school improvement initiatives.

If the Title I Plan is not satisfactory to parents and family members, the District shall submit any parent or family member comments with the plan when the school makes the plan available to the Board.

6318, 6312

POLICY NO. 919
TITLE I PARENT AND FAMILY ENGAGEMENT

Building Capacity for Parent and Family Engagement

The District shall provide the coordination, technical assistance, and other support necessary to assist and build the capacity of all participating schools in planning and implementing effective parent and family involvement activities to improve academic achievement and school performance through:

20 U.S.C. Sec. 6318

1. Providing assistance to parents and family members in understanding such topics as the academic standards, state and local academic assessments, the requirements of parent and family involvement, how to monitor a child's progress and work with teachers to improve the achievement of their children.
2. Providing material and training to help parents and family members work with their children to improve academic achievement and to foster parent and family engagement, such as:
 - a. Scheduling trainings in different locations on a variety of topics including how to support their child in school, literacy, school safety, cultural diversity and conflict resolution.
 - b. Using technology, including education about the harms of copyright piracy, as appropriate.
 - c. Providing information, resources and materials in a user-friendly format.
 - d. Providing, as requested by a parent or family member, other reasonable support for parent and family engagement activities.
 - e. Training on how to use the Parent Portal as a tool to monitor grades and achievement.
3. Educating teachers, specialized instructional support personnel, principals and other school leaders and staff, with the assistance of parents and family members, on the value and usefulness of contributions of parents and

4. To the extent feasible and appropriate, coordinating and integrating Title I parent and family involvement efforts and activities with other federal, state and local programs, including public preschool programs, and conduct other activities, such as parent resource centers, that encourage and support parents and family members in more fully participating in the education of their children.
5. Engage the parent organizations (i.e. PFO) to actively seek out and involve parents and family members through regular updates, information sessions and assistance with the identification of effective communication strategies.
6. Train parents and family members to enhance the involvement of other parents and family members.
7. Adopt and implement model approaches to improving parent and family engagement.
8. Establish a district-wide Title I parent and family advisory council to provide advice on all matters related to parent and family engagement in Title I programs.
9. Engage community-based organizations and businesses in parent and family engagement activities.
