

Keystone Oaks School District

Volunteer Clearances Packet

Pennsylvania law now requires anyone who volunteers their time in a school district to have the following clearances: State Police Clearance (Act 34), Child Abuse Clearance (Act 151) and the FBI Clearance (fingerprinting). This law went into effect on July 1, 2015 and also requires that volunteers renew their clearances every 60 months (5 years).

The Keystone Oaks School District values the thousands of hours that parents and other members of the community volunteer at sporting events, on field trips and in the classroom.

Anyone who wishes to volunteer their time for any activity associated with the Keystone Oaks School District is required to have current copies of the State Police Clearance, Child Abuse Clearance and FBI Clearance (or signed Volunteer Clearance Exception Disclosure Statement) on file in the District's Personnel Office. The State Police Clearance and Child Abuse Clearance are free for volunteers and can often be obtained in as little as one business day.

Volunteers are required to pay for the cost of the FBI Fingerprinting Clearance (if needed).

Instructions on applying for the clearances are included in this packet.

Please read the following instructions carefully:

1. Please fill out the attached Volunteer Clearances Form.
2. Apply for the required clearances and/or the Volunteer Clearance Exception Disclosure Statement See instructions in this packet.
3.
